 Per your request for RAD's review and comment on the suggestion included in the attached memorandum we have the following observations;

Implementation of this particular suggestion would require either legislative changes in the Civil Service Retirement Laws or an Office of General Counsel opinion that such emoluments could be granted under the DCI's authority coupled with the DCI's decision that application of his authority in this regard was appropriate. Suggestions similar to this proposal have been considered in the past and have been reviewed by OGC but have not been favorably recommended based either on legal or propriety considerations.
